

Pastor Psiyina L. Davis

Psiyina [sigh-YE-nuh] L. Davis is a native of Detroit, Michigan, and currently resides in Durham with her husband, Dr. Herbert R. Davis, and three of their four beautiful daughters: Keilah, Cierra, and Kylah.

She is a graduate of Kalamazoo College where she studied economics, and earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1993. She received her Masters of Arts in Christian Counseling degree from Apex School of Theology in 2011. Pastor Davis graduated from Liberty University with a Masters of Arts in Marriage and Family Therapy in 2015. She is currently a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist Associate.

In 1994, she obeyed the voice of God and the leadership of her husband and relocated to Durham, North Carolina. Shortly thereafter, through much prayer and continual labor, they founded Nehemiah Christian Center Church of God in Christ in January of 1996. She now serves along side of Dr. Davis (Senior Pastor) in a team leadership role at NCC as Pastor of Congregational Care. At NCC, she leads the women's ministry and health ministry, and sings on the praise and worship team. She also serves as the Co-founder of Kingdom Harvest Ministries (2004), which is the teaching, preaching and counseling ministry of both she and her husband.

Pastor Davis has humbly accepted her mission to empower the body of Christ, and women in particular, to walk in God's purpose, and utilize the gifts with which God has equipped them to build the Kingdom of God. Her desire is to serve God in every endeavor and facet of life as she is used to impact the Kingdom and repair the brokenness in the lives of everyone she encounters. She often reminds people that "God is faithful" and "we are more than conquerors!"
